

Bartky HealthCare Center LLC

Description:

We are a private group practice providing comprehensive mental health services for children, adolescents and adults with specialties in eating disorders and attention deficit disorder. We know how painful it is to have an eating disorder and have advanced clinicians who have the dedication and skill to help you actively engage in your own recovery process. Since eating disorders can affect every aspect of your life, we are prepared to help with school, work, family and love life. We provide psychiatry, testing and a range of psychotherapies. We are known for our clinical integrity, versatility and down to earth style. We offer hope, skill and compassion.
