

Amanda M. Nichols, MSW, LCSW

Description:

2 Office Locations: Central West End & St. Charles* 4507-B Laclede Ave. St. Louis, MO 63108*2081 Collier Corporate Pkwy. St. Charles, MO 63303 Amanda M. Nichols, MSW, LCSW has worked with those affected by eating disorders in a variety of settings. Her education and training, along with her personal struggle and professional experience with eating disorders, enable her to offer insightful guidance to the population that she serves. Amanda offers compassionate, encouraging support – with a straightforward approach that can be especially beneficial to those accustomed to the “secretiveness” that often accompanies eating disorders. Because of her personal encounter with an eating disorder, Amanda is also able to identify with clients on a level beyond simply the “textbook treatment” many in the field may provide. Amanda also has extensive experience and familiarity in working with other mental health disorders that are frequently related to eating disorders (including, depression, anx
