

J.M. Lees Therapeutic Services

Description:

An outpatient treatment facility for adolescents and adults beset by addictions. Chemical Dependency affects the whole family and we specialize in individualized treatment plans and incorporate a strong family component to treatment. Individual, Group and Family work is addressed. We do evaluations for referrals and to set up recommendations for specific level of care. We also work directly with other mental health professionals in the area to address underlying issues or assess for any mood disorder. We would love to hear from you via phone, mail or email. We also do IM or email coaching for individuals and family members. Please visit our website for details.
