

La Bonne Maison, LLC

Description:

La Bonne Maison was established to help women suffering from bulimia and binge eating disorders. La Bonne Maison is a restorative living home with a structured environment in Central Florida. We offer a non-clinical supportive home until you feel comfortable to go back and start your new life. As our guest, you will begin new eating habits and learn how to deal with temptations. There is lots of activities movies, yoga, pilates, swimming and arts and crafts. In addition to the activities, there's outpatient therapy to deal with your emotional needs. Our staff will assist you in your meal planning, cooking, grocery shopping. You will also be in a 12 step program and attend weekly meeting with a licensed therapist and nutritionist. As a non clinical facility, La Bonne Maison wants to make your stay comfortable and restorative as possible. We offer private suites during their transition to eating wellness. If you have a desire to beat your eating disorder please call La Bonne Maison.
