

Allison Jupiter, LCSW-R

Description:

I am an experienced psychotherapist specializing in eating disorders and substance abuse. I begin with where the patient is in their recovery process and understand how difficult the prospect of recovery can be. I utilize a combination of insight-orientated and cognitive-behavioral approaches to help patients increase their self-esteem and maximize their potential. I am an in-network provider for Aetna and Cigna. I also offer a sliding scale upon request.
