

EDSA (Eating Disorder Support for All)

Description:

April 2007 We are in the process of starting an in person Eating Disorders Support Group in Orange County, CA, i.e., Newport Beach, Irvine, and other cities, etc., on a monthly basis. For those who are interested please contact us. This ED Support Group will welcome all, i.e., females, males, teens (age appropriate), children (age appropriate), i.e., all who are struggling with ED's (all types), and support for parents, family, love ones', and friends who are watching their children and friends struggle. This disease effects entire families. OutPt. therapy or counseling is to prepare you for Inpt. therapy or counseling in a residential clinic.
