

Barbara G. Reese, LCSW, ADTR

Description:

This practice offers you a safe place to come for an initial consultation to help you develop a treatment direction for recovery from your eating disorder. This practice offers you individual therapy, family support, and a weekly therapy group program - The Inner Image Program for Eating and Body Image Concerns.

I have over fifteen years of experience in the field of eating disorders and work with the full range of eating disorders - anorexia, bulimia, binge/compulsive eating. I offer treatment for children, adolescents, adult men and women.
