

Siskeene's Emerging Light

Description:

Certified Hypnotherapist, Cert. Energy Therapist A Holistic Center for Healing...Explore new and motivating perspectives to assist you with exciting and useful information. Please enter and "dis-cover" scientific and spiritual concepts that will challenge and ignite you to lead a new level of holistic living. At Siskeene's Emerging Light, we invite you to the re-emergence of your true potentiality. To review your life "problems" as potential opportunities for growth and to expand your level of awareness to a new more positive perspective. As a team we draw on a variety of psychological, spiritual and scientific concepts to provide a foundation of balance and validation for the individual. We view the whole person as an integration of body mind/spirit and that thoughts create emotions, and that emotions create beliefs and beliefs ultimately define our physical reality. To change our physical reality for the better, we must go within ourselves and shift our thought
