

M.A. MFT

Description:

E.D. Specialist providing treatment for all those suffering from eating disorders. I have been there myself and know that recovery is possible. I have been treating individuals and their families for 20 years in the South Bay of California. I am an instructor at California State University teaching other health care professionals to identify and treat eating disorders.

I have day, evening and weekend appointment times, and work on a sliding scale. Insurance is accepted.
