

Andrew Walen, LCSW-C

Description:

Founded in 2008 by Andrew Walen, The Body Image Therapy Center offers outpatient treatment, education, phone consultation, and psychological testing for eating, weight, and body image disorders including anorexia nervosa, bulimia nervosa, compulsive eating/binge eating disorder and bariatric surgery patients.

Our therapists work with children, adolescents and adults. In addition, we are happy to see clients who have general mental health concerns such as anxiety, depression, relationship troubles, low self-esteem, trouble in school or professional life, etc. We also have expertise in addiction treatment and relapse prevention.
