

Magnolia Creek Treatment Center

Description:

Magnolia Creek provides residential and partial hospitalization treatment for women ages 18 and older struggling with eating disorders. Their center is located just outside of Birmingham, Alabama, peacefully situated on 36 wooded acres next to its own private 5-acre lake. They admit only 8 clients at a time to their residential program and 8 clients at a time to their partial hospitalization program in order to provide focused, comprehensive, and personalized care. Their program is designed to provide a holistic treatment experience, addressing the medical, psychological, nutritional, spiritual, and relational needs of their clients. Magnolia Creek holds Accreditation by The Joint Commission and is licensed by the State of Alabama Department of Mental Health.
