

Alison Weiss, LCSW

Description:

I received my Masters degree and post-fellowship training at the University of Michigan Medical Center. In addition, I have also worked on a n Eating Disorder Day Program in Denver, Colorado. I currently provide supportive and cognitive behavioral treatment for teens and adults struggling with eating disorders, eating issues and body-image issues. My office is located in the Chicago Loop, near several main 'L' stops. There is a parking garage in the building. Validation provided. I check my voicemail regularly (773) 339-8819 and respond to email inquiries on a regular basis. I provide a sliding scale. Please make the first step to living a healthier life.
